Executive Summary

This is the annual report and audited statement of accounts for the year 2021-22 of the National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG), an apex-level autonomous institution set up in 2014 under the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions. This document provides a summary of activities, publications, programmes, collaborations, etc. carried out by the Centre from April 1, 2021, to March 31, 2022. This also contains the audited statement of accounts for 2021-22.

NCGG works in the areas of governance, policy reforms, capacity building, and training of civil servants and technocrats of India and other developing countries. The Centre also serves as a think tank. The Centre acts as the national repository of information on various initiatives and best practices that promotes good governance, transparency and improved public service delivery. The Centre has been focusing on capacity building programmes for civil servants of various states/ UTs and other developing countries.

During the financial year 2021-22, amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, the Centre organized two ITEC webinars on 'administrative innovations' with participants from 13 countries on knowledge sharing of digitalized e-governance model of Passport Seva Kendra and on the regional connectivity scheme, UDAN. The Centre also conducted a series of webinars on governance practices, reforms and challenges of the administrations around the world and in India with participation from senior civil servants, academicians specialized in public administration, political science and sociology from over 100 universities of India, district collectors of aspirational districts, research scholars and experts. The Centre also undertook the capacity building of more than 200 civil servants from Jammu & Kashmir and Maldives during this period.

As part of outreach and collaborations, NCGG signed six MoUs with reputed organizations and research institutions working on policy, governance, public administration, capacity building and training to advance the research and training by strengthening knowledge and skills. The Centre also published a book on 'Good Governance Practices in a Pandemic' to assess, review and catalogue the practices employed by national, state and local level officials to tackle the health crisis. The NCGG has been continuously striving to contribute to improving governance and enhancing the quality of life of people.

Introduction

I. About the Centre

In the year 2014, National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG) was set up as an apex-level institution under the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, Government of India. It has a head office in New Delhi and branch office in Mussoorie.

NCGG deals with a gamut of governance issues from local, state to national levels, across all sectors. The Centre is mandated to work in the areas of governance, policy reforms, capacity building and training of civil servants and technocrats of India and other developing countries. It also works as a think tank of the Government of India.

As an apex level institution of the country, the Centre provides guidance to various ministries/ departments of the government and its agencies and assists in initiating good governance and promoting policy reforms.

II. Objectives

The objectives of NCGG are:

- i.) To be a think tank for governance and policy reforms, cutting across administrative, social, economic and financial spheres;
- ii.) To function as a national repository on information on best practices, initiatives and methodologies that promote good governance, e-Governance, innovation & change management within the government and its parastatal organizations;
- iii.) To initiate and participate in action research and capacity-building on various aspects of regulatory and development administration, public policy, governance and public management at the national, state and local levels;
- iv.) To advise on key issues in governance and develop synergy across various ministries/ departments of Government of India, and state governments;

- v.) To promote sharing and replication of innovative ideas and best practices in governance; and
- vi.) To interact with national and international organizations, in and outside the government, engaged in research and capacity building in these spheres.

III. Governing Body

The affairs of the NCGG are managed under the overall superintendence and direction of the governing body, which is headed by the Cabinet Secretary. It has Secretaries of 9 ministries/departments of the Government of India and 5 persons viz. academicians, eminent administrators, specialists, eminent innovators, heads of reputed institutions as members. The Director General who is the Chief Executive of NCGG acts as the Member-Secretary of the governing body. The composition of the Governing Body is at Annex-I.

IV. Management Committee

NCGG has a Management Committee with Secretary, Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances (DARPG) as the Chairperson. The composition of the Management Committee is at Annex-II.

Activities of NCGG during the year 2021-22

I. Capacity building of civil servants of Maldives

The National Centre for Good Governance has been conducting capacity building programmes on public policy, public service delivery and governance. An MoU was signed between India and Maldives during the state visit of the Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi to Maldives on 8th June, 2019 to train 1,000 civil servants of Maldives for over a period of 5 years.

The agreement envisages that NCGG will be the nodal institution for designing customised training modules for the Civil Service Commission, Maldives and oversee its implementation. The training programmes will include subjects such as public administration, e-governance & public service delivery, public policy & governance, information technology, best practices in fisheries in coastal areas, agro-based practices, self-help group initiatives, urban development and planning, ethics in administration and challenges in the implementation of SDGs. Maldives will nominate suitable civil servants at the senior/executive/middle management levels.

Further, the NCGG will assist the Civil Services Training Institute, a subsidiary of the Civil Service Commission, Maldives, to develop training programmes and materials, and assist in organizing the exchange of experts as per the demands of the Civil Services Commission.

The objectives of the capacity building programme are:

- i.) provide a platform for policy dialogue and knowledge sharing, thereby highlighting the role of good governance and public policy for sustainable development;
- ii.) facilitate the sharing of lessons, cross country experiences and best practices on governance, field administration and public policy in the region;
- iii.) detailed insights into the frameworks adopted by the Government of India in implementing projects, including IT applications and e-governance;
- iv.) detailed insights into the inter-disciplinary field of public policy and governance essentially in the areas of education, health, urban reforms, financial policy, energy security, environment, disaster management, fisheries development, and other areas; and

- v.) field exposure to transformative projects in various areas such as infrastructure development, power projects, transport, self-help group, handicraft, handloom, etc.

During the year 2021–22, despite Covid-19 pandemic, NCGG organized capacity building programmes in five batches and trained over 144 civil servants from the Republic of Maldives. The capacity building programme conducted during the year 2021-22, are at Annex – III.

II. Capacity building of Jammu & Kashmir Administrative Service officers

With a focus on good governance, public policy and field administration, it was decided to train 2,000 senior officers belonging to Jammu & Kashmir Administrative Service on the lines of Indian Administrative Service. This was announced by the Hon'ble Minister of State for Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions, Dr. Jitendra Singh during the regional conference on replication of good governance practices held on July 1–2, 2021 at Srinagar. This conference was organized by DAR&PG and Government of Jammu & Kashmir.

Consequently, during the conference, an MoU was signed between the National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG and Jammu & Kashmir Institute of Management, Public Administration & Rural Development (J&KIMPARD) to design and conduct the capacity building programmes for the senior officers of Jammu & Kashmir. After several rounds of meeting held between NCGG & J&KIMPARD, which was chaired by DG, NCGG and Secretary, DAR&PG, NCGG was delegated to outline a roadmap covering the modalities of the capacity building programme for the officers of Jammu & Kashmir. NCGG developed the module and worked out the schedule and trained senior officials of Jammu & Kashmir Administrative Service and UT of Ladakh in three batches.

The details of the capacity building programmes conducted during the year 2021-22 are at Annex-IV.

III. NCGG-ITEC Webinars

In the wake of Covid – 19 pandemic, webinars on 'administrative innovations' brought together the senior civil servants of India and neighboring countries. These webinars also encouraged knowledge sharing sessions on disseminating innovative practices in the field of administration. These webinars were organized in collaboration with the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India.

166 international participants attended these webinars from Myanmar, Maldives, Vietnam, Bhutan, Tunisia, Morocco, Cambodia, Bangladesh, Kenya, Azerbaijan, Trinidad & Tobago, Kingdom of Eswatini, etc.

NCGG has organized 2 NCGG – ITEC webinars on administrative innovations with a focus on subjects such as: Passport Seva Kendra, e-Office, India Post and UDAN (Ude Desh ka Aam Nagrik). details of the same is at Annex-V.

Independent Auditor's Report on the audit of the financial statements The Members of National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG)

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Consolidated financial statements of National Centre for Good Governance (NCGG) ("the Society"), which comprise the balance sheet as at 31st March, 2022, and the statement of income & expenditure and receipts and payment accounts for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the society as at 31st March, 2022, its Profit/(Loss) for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards on auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Society in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matters

We draw attention to the matters stated in the management letter annexed with the audit report. Our opinion is not modified in respect of those matters mentioned in the management letter.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

The management of the society is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Society in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting standards issued by ICAI. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the society for safeguarding of the assets of the society and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- a) Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- b) Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the society's internal control.
- c) Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- d) Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the management with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

We report that:

- a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit
- b) In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Society so far as it appears from our examination of those books;
- c) The balance sheet, the statement of Income & Expenditure and the receipts and Payment Account, dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
