SETTING UP THE DEPARTMENT

The Administrative Reforms Commission (1969) had, in its report on Machinery of the Government of India and its procedure of work, recommended inter-alia setting up of a separate Department of Personnel directly under the Prime Minister. In pursuance of these recommendations, a new Department namely Department of Personnel was created in August 1970 under the Cabinet Secretariat by transferring the subject concerning public services from the Ministry of Home Affairs. The details of changes made in the nomenclature/allocation of work of the Department during the subsequent years are given below:

- (i) The work concerning administrative reforms was transferred from the Ministry of Home Affairs to the Department of Personnel and the Department was re-designated as Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms in February 1973.
- (ii) The Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms was shifted from the Cabinet Secretariat to the Ministry of Home Affairs in April 1977.
- (iii) The work relating to administration of service rules including Fundamental Rules (FRs) and Service Rules (SRs), subject to certain exceptions was transferred from the Ministry of Finance to the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms in December 1978.
- (iv) The Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms was moved out of the Ministry of Home Affairs and placed under the independent charge of the Prime Minister in January 1985.
- (v) In March 1985, a separate Department of Pensions and Pensioners Welfare was created and the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms was re-designated as Ministry of Personnel and Training, Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances and Pensions, with three separate Departments namely:
 - (a) Department of Personnel and Training (DOPT);
 - (b) Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances (DARPG);
and
 - (c) Department of Pensions and Pensioners Welfare (DoPPW).
- (vi) The Ministry was further re-designated as Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions' in December 1985.
- (vii) The work of Public Enterprises Selection Board (PESB) was transferred from the Ministry of Industry (Bureau of Public Enterprises) to the Department of Personnel and Training in August 1986.
- (viii) Work relating to Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and Prevention of Corruption Act was transferred to Cabinet Secretariat in January 2003 but transferred back to the DOPT w.e.f. 07.06.2004.

III. DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING AND ITS VARIOUS OFFICES.

The Department of Personnel and Training (DOPT) is the coordinating agency of the Central Government in personnel matters, issues concerning Recruitment, Training, Career Development and Staff Welfare.

The role of the DOPT can be conceptually divided into two parts, in its large nodal role, it acts as the formulator of policy and the watch-dog of the Government ensuring that certain accepted standards and norms, as laid down by it, are followed by all Ministries/Departments, in the recruitment, regulation of service conditions, posting/transfers, deputation of personnel as well as other related issues. Towards this end, guidelines are issued by it for the benefit of all Ministries/Departments. It also advises all organizations of the Central Government on issues of personnel management. At a more immediate level, the Department has the direct responsibility of being the Cadre Controlling Authority for the IAS and the three Secretariat Services in the Central Secretariat.

The name officer along with work distribution and contact details are available on the website of the Department at the link <https://doptonline.nic.in/personnel/contactus.aspx>

The Department of Personnel and Training is under the overall charge of the Prime Minister, assisted by a Minister of State. The Department is functioning under the charge of Secretary (Personnel) who is presently assisted by three Additional Secretaries, four Joint Secretary rank officers and other supporting officers and staff. Functionally, the Department is presently divided into following 5 Wings, each of which is headed by either an Additional Secretary or a Joint Secretary:

Establishment Officer (EO):

All matters related to Senior Appointments, Career Management, fellowship abroad and foreign assignment are handled by EO Wing. It also operates the Central Staffing Scheme under which suitable officers from All India Services and Group 'A' Central Services are selected and then placed in posts at the level of Deputy Secretary/ Director and Joint Secretary, on the basis of tenure / deputation. All proposals for senior appointments under the Government of India, which require the approval of the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet (ACC), are processed through the Establishment Officer as Secretary of the ACC.

The Wing also deals with cases of appointment to posts of Chairperson, Managing Director, full-time functional Director/ Member of the Board of Management of various Public Sector Undertakings/ Enterprises, Corporations, Banks and financial institutions. It also deals with the assignment of Indian experts to various developing countries.

Also, all appointments by promotion, which require the approval of the ACC are also processed through the Establishment Officer.

Services and Vigilance (S&V):

All matters relating to Administrative Vigilance (including administration of CVC) and All India Services, Cadre Management of IAS Officers, Service allocation of candidates recommended by UPSC on the basis of Civil Services Examination, Regulation of All India Services Rules etc., are handed in the Services & Vigilance Wing.

Personnel Policy Wing:

All matters relating to Personnel policies of Central Government servants (other than All India Service Officers) such as Service Conditions & Rules, Cadre Review, Recruitment Rules, Reservation in Services, Pay, Leave & Allowances, Joint Consultative Machinery for Central Government employees and matters relating to the UPSC, SSC and PESB, States Reorganization, Retraining & Redeployment of Surplus Staff, Lateral Entry etc., are handled in Personnel Policy Wing.

International Cooperation & Central Secretariat Wing:

The Central Secretariat Wing deals with the matters related to Cadre Management of the Central Secretariat Service (CSS), Central Secretariat Stenographers' Service (CSSS) and the Central Secretariat Clerical Service (CSCS).

Administrative Tribunals & Administration Wing:

All matters relating to Service matters of employees posted in the Department/ General Administration of the Department, Internal Coordination within the Department; Citizens and Client Charter, Budget matters relating to this Ministry including its Attached/ Subordinate offices, Parliamentary matters and all matters related to Administrative Tribunals, Right to Information Act, 2005 and the Central Information Commission, Welfare of Central Government employees, matters related to Mission Recruitment etc.

Training Wing

All matters related to formulation & implementation of National Training Policy and coordination of training policy for the All India and Central Services Matters related to the National Programme for Civil Service Capacity Building (Mission Karmayogi). Formulation of Cadre Training Plan for Central Secretariat Service (CSS) and Central Secretariat Stenographers Service (CSSS) officers. Management of Assistant Secretary Programme. An online training programme known as i-GOT (Integrated Government Online Training) has been launched on 20th December, 2018. Further, the 'National Programme for Civil Services Capacity Building' (Mission Karmayogi) has been approved by Cabinet on 2nd September 2020.

e-HRMS Wing

eHRMS wing of DOPT manages the eHRMS 2.0 portal. e-HRMS is a project under Mission Karmayogi to streamline HR operations, ensure compliance, and optimize resource allocation. It serves as a service delivery platform, offering a wide range of employee services—from standard tasks like leave, TA/DA, bill reimbursements, LTC, Tour approval, IPR, Transfer/Posting requests, Pay Slips, GPF, NOCs for Higher study, requests for Promotions, Deputation, Extensions, Government Order repository, and a comprehensive e-Service Record, followed by role-based dashboards for Talent Search facility and to ensure improved administrative efficiency. It is being integrated with iGOT, SUPREMO, PFMS, SPARROW, Bhavishya, CGHS and other portals to provide end to end Human Resource Management System. eHRMS 2.0 is also generating a functional organogram which would map all central government institutions: ministries, departments, statutory bodies, regulators, attached offices, autonomous bodies, institutes, subordinate offices, PSUs, regulators, think-tanks, training institutes etc. and would provide information regarding all personnel working for the central government viz. regular government employees, consultants, young professionals, and other temporary/contractual staff working in these bodies.

IV. ROLE OF DOPT'S ATTACHED AND OTHER OFFICES

(1) Union Public Service Commission (UPSC)

UPSC is constituted under a provision of the Constitution and is responsible for conducting examinations for appointment to the higher civil services and civil posts under the Union Government; including recruitment to the All India Services. There is a mandatory provision for consulting the Commission on all matters relating to methods of recruitment, principles to be followed in making promotions and transfers from one service to another and on all disciplinary matters.

(2) Staff Selection Commission (SSC)

The SSC is responsible for making recruitment to the posts of Group 'B' (Non-Gazetted) such as Assistant Section Officers, Stenographers etc. and Group 'C' levels. The Cabinet has approved the setting up of a National Recruitment Agency (NRA) on 19th August 2020. National Recruitment Agency (NRA) has been set up to conduct a Tier-I Common Eligibility Test (CET) to screen/shortlist candidates for the Group B and C (non-technical) posts which are otherwise shortlisted through separate exams.

(3) Public Enterprises Selection Board (PESB)

The PESB is an expert body responsible for selection and placement of personnel for top managerial posts in the Public Sector Undertakings. The Board was originally constituted in 1974 and placed under the administrative control of the Ministry of Industry (Bureau of Public Enterprise). In 1986, the administrative control of the Board was transferred to the Department of Personnel and Training. The Board consists of a full time Chairperson and three full time Members. The Secretariat of the Board is headed by an officer, designated as 'Secretary' who is an officer of the rank of Joint Secretary to the Government of India.

(4) National Recruitment Agency (NRA)

The National Recruitment Agency (NRA) has been registered as a Society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 with its HQ in Delhi. NRA has been set up to conduct the Common Eligibility Test (CET) for subordinate posts as per the DoPT order dated 28.08.2020. NRA aims to conduct Common Eligibility Tests (CET) to shortlist the candidates for vacancies of Group B Non Gazetted posts, Group B Gazetted posts which are exempted from consultation with UPSC; Group C posts in the Government and equivalent posts (where no such classifications exist) in instrumentalities of the Government, through a computer-based test (Tier-1 Examination).

(5) Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA)

The Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA), Mussourie, is a premier training institution for the civil services in India. It conducts a common Foundation Course for entrants to the All India Services; Indian Foreign Service; Group 'A' services of the Union and the Royal Bhutan Service followed by professional training for the regular recruits of the IAS and members of the Royal Bhutan Service. The Academy also conducts Induction, in-service and Mid-Career Training Programme (MCTPs) for members of the IAS. Training Programme for officers promoted to the IAS from State Civil Services. In addition, workshops and seminars on policy and governance-related issues are held from time to time.

(6) Institute of Secretariat Training and Management (ISTM)

The Institute of Secretariat Training and Management (ISTM) imparts training to the officers of the Central/State Governments, Public Sector Undertakings & Autonomous Bodies. It was originally set up with the objective of conducting foundational and in-service training programme for Assistant Section Officers and Section Officers of the Central Secretariat. The range of the activities of the institute has increased exponentially over the last several decades. In addition to the in-house training programmes, the Institute also impart training in Behavioral Skills, Management Techniques, Financial Management, Office Management etc.

(7) Capacity Building Commission (CBC)

As part of the flagship National Programme for Civil Services Capacity Building (NPCSCB)- Mission Karmayogi Project for competency development at all stages of a career of a civil servant, the Capacity Building Commission (CBC) has been established on 01.04.2021 as an important institutional mechanism for building a credible and a uniform approach to capacity building on a collaborative and co-sharing basis. The CBC consists of a Chairperson, two Members and a Secretary. The core purpose of the Commission is to build credibility and shape a uniform approach to capacity building on a collaborative and co-sharing basis.
